

Whole-Tone Scales

This image displays 12 whole-tone scales, organized into six pairs. Each pair consists of an ascending scale followed by a descending scale, all written in treble clef. The scales are arranged in two columns of six rows each. The first column contains scales starting on C, D, E, F, G, and A. The second column contains scales starting on B, Bb, Ab, Gb, Fb, and Eb. Each scale is written across two staves, with the first staff containing the first six notes and the second staff containing the remaining six notes. The scales are written in a continuous, flowing manner, with no rests between notes. The key signatures are indicated by sharps or flats at the beginning of each scale.

The scales are as follows:

- Scale 1 (C): C, D, E, F, G, A, B, C
- Scale 2 (D): D, E, F, G, A, B, C, D
- Scale 3 (E): E, F, G, A, B, C, D, E
